

Welcome to Hong Kong

Dear Visitors,

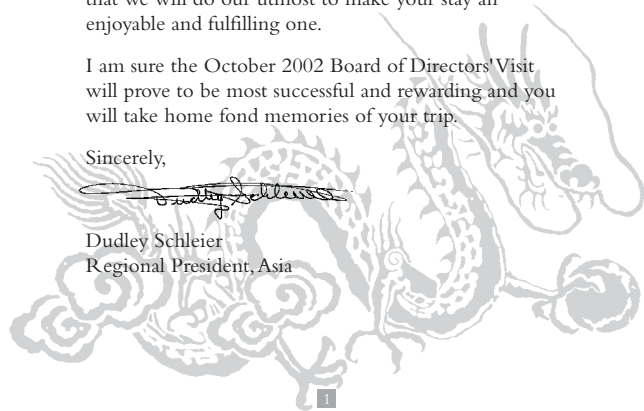

Welcome to Hong Kong. The cosmopolitan jewel of the East that is gleaming with modernity while it is intoxicating in its Old World charm. Its unique character and strong growth over the past few decades have paved its way as the economic and tourism hub of the region.

There is much to see and do during your short stay in this beautiful city. You can enjoy the stunning intricacy of its Chinese temples and the heavenly view of the South China Sea at Repulse Bay. We hope you will enjoy your Hong Kong experience. Please be assured that we will do our utmost to make your stay an enjoyable and fulfilling one.

I am sure the October 2002 Board of Directors' Visit will prove to be most successful and rewarding and you will take home fond memories of your trip.

Sincerely,

Dudley Schleier
Regional President, Asia

Shopping Paradise

Central

The central business district houses designer boutiques and malls such as The Landmark, The Galleria, Prince's Building and Alexandra House. Li Yuen Street East and Li Yuen Street West are lined with street stalls selling a variety of clothing and accessories, while Hollywood Road offers a grand selection of antiques and curios.

Admiralty

In Pacific Place Mall, you will find over 130 shops including Marks & Spencer, Lane Crawford, Seibu and other designer stores.

Sheung Wan

Chinese handicrafts and fabric can be found in Western Market. The area to the west is famed for medicinal herbs and dried seafood. Cat Street Bazaar is best known for antiques and curios.

Wan Chai

Rattan and Chinese furniture shops line Queen's Road East. Buyers can even arrange to have their purchases sent home.

Tsim Sha Tsui

Harbor City, Ocean Terminal, Ocean Center, Marco Polo Hong Kong Hotel Arcade and Star House form a huge shopping and entertainment complex on the waterfront of Canton Road. Also abundant in Tsim Sha Tsui are jewelry shops and tailors as well as electronics in Nathan Road's "Golden Mile".

Yau Ma Tei & Mong Kok

You can find the Bird Market on Yuen Po Street, the Flower Market on Flower Market Road and the Jade Market at the junction of Kansu and Battery streets. Inexpensive amulets, necklaces and trinkets can be found in the Jade Market.

Dine Around

Noted as one of the culinary capitals of the world, Hong Kong has the best in Chinese cuisine and also an extensive range of other Asian and international restaurants. Hong Kong people have a passion for food and meals are fundamental to social interaction.

Cantonese cuisine is predominant and is known for its rich taste and freshness. Probably the most famous form of Cantonese food is dim sum which is eaten in the morning or early afternoon.

Other popular regional Chinese cuisines in Hong Kong include Beijing, Sichuan and Chiu Chow.

Southeast Asian and Indian cuisines are also prominent and are characterized by hot and spicy food, especially the increasingly popular Thai dishes.

Dining Etiquette

Using chopsticks properly is essential, as is waiting for the host to start eating or serve you first. When taking food from the center of the table, it is proper to put it into your bowl first before eating it. It is polite to pour tea for fellow diners before filling your own cup.

Other Useful Information

Currency

Legal tender is the Hong Kong dollar (HK$). There are 100 cents in a dollar.

Coins: Bronze - 10 cents, 20 cents, 50 cents
Silver - HK$1, HK$2, HK$5
Nickel & Bronze - HK$10

Bank notes: HK$10, HK$20, HK$50, HK$100,
HK$500, HK$1,000

The value of the Hong Kong dollar is pegged at HK$7.8 to the US dollar and consequent rates of exchange to other currencies. Major credit cards are generally accepted in hotels, shops and restaurants, but personal checks are only rarely accepted in Hong Kong.

Tipping

Most restaurants will add a 10% service charge to your bill and hence a tip is not required. Where there is no service charge, they will expect some loose change. You may tip hotel bellboys and airport porters. We would suggest that HK$20 is an adequate amount.
